RECONSTRUCTED COPY

[illegible]
[illegible]
Sept. 21, 1944

[illegible] Ambassador in Paris and leaves on Thursday morning to [illegible], whom I mentioned (he is Mr. Smyth's literary [illegible] secretary in French and who also arrived. It is more and more clear that these high-ranking men in the American and German zones are in constant contact and in coordinated activity with the Catholic private [illegible]. It is the young Redemptorist Father from Vienna whom I have already mentioned several times, who is now in General Zink, military and it is Mr. Dorenos [illegible] if the Germans had invited the French officers with him today.

A few days ago I had a long talk with [illegible], who is one of Mr. Hull's colleagues, a Lithuanian and very able person and he asked me what I thought of [illegible]. It is a bit who is in contact with General de Gaulle, and it seems that without him" (his name not known) made a very stupid impression on those who met people. I personally do not know [illegible] but heard a lot about him, [illegible] a former military attache in Berlin, was known as pro-German, but [illegible] changed a lot especially under the influence of his French wife.

The talk [illegible] with General Zink proved to me that he would like to bring in [illegible] as a close collaborator on some sort of "[illegible]" as was intended [illegible]. I asked General Zink if he has any guarantee from the French side or if he made any commitments. He denied both but, as far as I can see, he has [illegible] close collaboration as he lives in the French spirit of occupation and the French officers help him in small practical matters, etc. But he is rather honest in this way that he would at least like to [illegible] against the postponement right of all of the [illegible] powers and according to his words he endeavored from the beginning to keep the equilibrium and to be on equally good terms and collaboration with the Americans, British and French. I can't judge of the American "line" he is following, but have got the impression that it is sometimes wishful and Count [illegible] are following two [illegible] as well as [illegible] who very strongly leaned on the Poles. [illegible] personal contact with [illegible] and it is the Polish line that brings [illegible] trouble.

DECLASSIFIED AND RELEASED BY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
SOURCES METHODS EXEMPTION 3B2B
NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2006

[illegible]